V1

Been strumming this old thing, ever since, I was ten,
I barley made a living, now I'm near the end
But I still ya'll get a smile or two, when I play the blues
And when that snow starts to falling
It beats sweatin' shining shoes

Chorus

Got a canvas for my roof
Since the landlord changed the locks
But I can't stop, feeding my soul with this,
Starvation box

I use to sit down by the chook patch, learning all I could
My father use to tell me, son you got the goods
Then he bought me a real Guitar, I don't need that shovel string
And tears of joy ran down my face, when he played me BB King

Chorus

Got a canvas for my roof
Since the landlord changed the locks
But I can't stop, feeding my soul with this,
Starvation box

Bridge

I might be a little hungry, but I don't care
I might be a little cold, might have a tear in my stare
Gonna keep on moving, I ain't ever gonna stop
Cause I can't stop feeding my soul
On this Starvation box

Solo

V3

When your body starts to rumble and you ain't got a dime
And the rain, keeps on pouring down, and your tryin' not to cry
Just remember your last gig, and the love that it brings
There ain't no real love... people with mercs n' diamond rings
